

GLOBAL WARMING

The icecap

-
- The icecap is melting because of global warming and many species are in danger such as Polar bear.
 - In the Arctic the icecap has shrunk by 15% to 20% in the past 30 years.
 - Glaciers are melting everywhere in the world increasing the risk of floods

Temperature changes

- Global temperatures have increased for a two decade.

- In some countries, agriculture is impossible because of desertification

Hurricanes

- Moreover global warming causes hurricanes and storms such as Katrina.
- Hurricanes comes to life because a gradual increase in the average temperature of earth's atmosphere and oceans

Conclusion

- Global warming entails many consequences for men and animals

